

Adultification Bias & Safeguarding Children Awareness Training Sessions:

NHS England London Region have commissioned 'Listen Up Research' to deliver five Adultification Bias (online) workshops for the regions NHS Safeguarding Children and LAC Designates, Named Nurses/Profs/GPs. Each workshop will consist of the same content and each will accommodate up to 30 delegates per session.

Adultification Bias & Safeguarding Children

This workshop explores the concept of 'adultification' from both a research and practice perspective. This session uses case studies, small group discussions and serious case review findings to explore how adultification manifests in practice. Participants are introduced to Listen Up's Professional Inter-Adultification Model which provides a framework for individuals and teams to reflect on practice and guard against the adultification of children and young people.

Session Objectives Include :

- To explore notions of vulnerability and childhood and how these are applied to some children more than others.
- To understand the broad concepts of intersectionality and adultification
- To identify ways to guard against adultification in practice
- To review findings from serious case reviews relating to child criminal exploitation

London Region safeguarding colleagues are invited to register their interest for a particular workshop date (1st & 2nd preference). Places will be allocated by order of priority (by safeguarding related role) and on a first come first served basis regarding date preference. The dates are;
